Bio:

Steff Jetson is a songwriter and musician who makes his home in Seattle. Originally from Missoula Montana he is a founding member and songwriter for the bands: The Bitter Roots, manSaveman, Chiseler and Into the March.

For this the debut Solo album, all of the music you hear was played and recorded live in the studio instrument by instrument, track by track without aid of clicks or computer backing. The sounds can best be described as NW Pop Rock and Big Rock sounds with lots of guitars, vocal harmonies and Hammond B3 Organ throughout.
